RECURRENCE OF LABOR TROUBLES IS FEARED

Discharge of White Men to Make Room for Japs Is

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Jan. 28 - Should the traveling car inspector of the Southern Pacific Rallroad company issue an order discharging several white car-cleaners in the local yards, to make place for Japanese laborers, as is rumored today, a recurrence of the labor troubles experienced at the railroad icehouses a year ago between white and Japanese laborers is expected.

and Japanese laborers is expected.

Some time ago the force of car-cleaners was reduced, among the number being several Japs. So persistent have been their complaints and the complaint of their interpreter; that Inspector Smyth is said to have agreed to "let out" a sufficient number of white men employed as car-cleaners in the local yards to make room for the Japs. If this is done, the labor organizations of the city will take a hand in the fight and appeal to those officials of the system who occupy positions higher than the car inspector for relief.

Last winter the entire force of white men employed in the local railroad lee-houses was discharged, and in their places Japanese workmen were hired. A riot of ne mean proportions was narrowly averted by the police and sheriff's force of deputies, and for some time open hostilities and bloodshed were imminent between the men of the different races until the trouble was settled by the railroad company making certain concessions.

Should the car-cleaning force be reduced to allow of the employment of Japanese workmen, a repetition of last winter's trouble is openly hinted.

ON LINE OF VIADUCT

Special to The Tribune.

GGDEN, Jan. 28.—Down on lower Twenty-fourth street where the big viaduet is being built by the Harriman roads across the network of tracks which spreads over this thoroughfare, everything is life and bustle.

A large force of men is engaged in unloading cars of structural steel onto wagons which drop the big beams at the precise location where they will be later riveted to the cement foundations. The foundations of the big bridge have been completed for some time, and the work for the next few weeks will be mainly confined to unloading about eighty-three fined to unloading about eighty-three more cars of the structural steel and placing it in position before the actual work of riveting and bolting the massive beams and supports will begin.

UNCONSCIOUS MAN FOUND LYING BY RAILROAD TRACK

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Jan. 28.—Word was received here today that an unidentified man had been picked up alongside the ratiroad tracks near Mosel. Nev., in an unconscious condition, suffering from contusions on his head and bruises all over his body. The injured man was taken to Battle Mountain for surgical attention.

It is believed that he was riding on a train and fell to the ground, also, that he is employed by one of the construction camps now at work in that part of Nevada on the Western Pacific. His injuries are not believed to be fatal.

Investigating Complaints. Special to the Tribune

Special to the Tribune.

OGDEN, Jan. 28.—District Forester Clyde Leavitt has received a letter from Chief Forester Gifford Pluchot explaining the position taken by the forestry department in the recent charges of unfairness made against the department by leaders of the mining Industry in Colorado. From the complaints made to the forestry department by the mining men, prospectors in Colorado were being unlawfully restrained of their rights by attaches of the forestry reserve. Mr. Pinchot, however, says he believes the troubles are now about ended.

MONTANA IS MUCH INTERESTED IN THE DRY-FARMING MOVEMENT

Special to the Tribune Special to the Tribune.

CHEYENNE, Wyo. Jan. 28.—That Montana looks to the dry farming movement for the reclamation of thousands of acres of semi-arid or arid land, which cannot be brought under ditch, is demonstrated by the fact that nearly one hundred delegates are coming from various points in that state to attend the third Transmissouri dry farming congress at Cheyenne February 25, 24 and 25.

Cheyenne February 23, 24 and 25.

Secretary John T. Burns of the board of control of the congress has received a letter from Governor Edwin L. Norris of Montana announcing that he had appointed twenty-one delegates to represent the state at large. Thirty delegates have already arranged to come from the vicinity of Billings and the people of that section expect to have at least fifty representatives in their party when the roll is called in the congress. Miles City has promised five delegates and reports from other parts of the state indicate that Montana will have about one hundred dry farmers or dry farm enthusiasts at Cheyenne next month. rmers or dry far beyonne next month

Cheyenne next month.

Governor Norris himself will be unable to accept the invitation to attend the congress, because the Montana legislature will be in session on the dates when the dry farmers meet, but that he will be with the congress in spirit is shown by the letter he sent. He says:

"The Transmissouri dry farming congress is doing great work that will result in vast good to the semi-arid states of the west."

Among the delegates coming are Alfred Atkinson, agronomist of the Montana Agricultural college at Rozeman, and F. B. Linfield, one of the directors of that institution.

That Idaho Falls, Ida., also has caught the spirit of dry farming is indicated in a letter received from the Club of Commerce, a representative organization composed of the leading business men of that city. The club has been enrolled for a life membership in the congress and will be well represented.

Secretary John T. Burns of the board of control of the congress has received word from George Harcourt, deputy minister of the department of agriculture, province of Alberta, Canada, announcing that the department would be represented at the congress by one and possibly two delegates. Mr. Harcourt expressed hearty approval of the work of the congress. There is an increasing interest in dry farming in the region about Edmonton, Alberta, and the propaganda is gaining recruits in other parts of the dominion every day.

DESIRES A MONOPOLY

Manager of That Institution Used as Business Catspaw by Apostle-Senator.

Special to The Tribune, PROVO, Jan. 28.—At the regular meet ag of the Provo Commercial club last evening. Alex Hedquist, manager of the Smoot drug store, introduced a resolution prohibiting the sale or dispensing of Smoot drug store, introduced a resolution prohibiting the sale or dispensing of liquors in the club rooms or by the club to its members or any other person. The resolution, if it passes, will become one of the by-laws of the club.

The president ruled that the resolution was out of order, as it is necessary to post in the club rooms any by-law for two weeks before it can be acted upon. The matter, therefore, went over for two weeks. The Smoot Drug company has a wholesale liquor dealer's license, and under that license it sells as much, or more, intoxicating liquor as any other institution in Utah county. And just what Mr. Hedquist's object was in introducing such a by-law in the Commercial club is not known, but the members are guessing. They say that it looks as though the Smoot drug store wants a monopoly of the drink-dispensing business. The store is very handy to the club rooms, being located in the same building; consequently, if the sale and dispensing of liquor in the club rooms is done away with, the Smoot drug store will, necessarily, get the trade.

The resolution, or by-law, coming from that source, is looked upon with suspicion and is the subject of talk on the streets and in places of business today, and will continue to be discussed until the matter has been voted upon by the club members. The introduction of the resolution has caused such a furore of unfavorable comment (coming from the source that it did) that it may be withdrawn before the two weeks expire, but if it is persisted in and the club is compelled to go on record, there is hardly a question that it will be voted down.

IDAHO MAY SECURE STRICTER DIVORCE LAW

Special to The Tribune.

BOISE, Ida., Jan. 28.—The house today, after refusing to table a resolution calling for an investigation of the lease of the alleged iron land to G. W. Thompson of Lewiston by the state land board for practically nothing, defeated the resolution itself by a vote of 27 to 22, all the Democrats and a number of Republicans voting for it. Bangs, Democrat, was the author of the resolution, and it provoked an intensely partisan discussion, the majority going to the rescue of the state board, while the Democrats sought to turn on the searchlight.

A bill was presented asking for an appropriation of $72,000 for the industrial school at St. Anthony, by the Framont delegation; one by Johnson, providing a penalty of from ten to twenty years' imprisonment for burglary of explosives, and by Shaw, regulating the sale of narcotic drugs.
